Pictures from A112 Meeting of July 8, 2008, in Cincinnati, Ohio where Morris Klimboff’s wife accepts the Patrick Higgins Medal on his behalf.
The citation on the Medal reads:
For outstanding leadership as an innovator of new product consensus standards and model code development and for extensive contributions on numerous technical specifications for plumbing products that worked to protect the health and safety of the public and to promote commerce.