Pictures from A112 Meeting of July 14, 2011, in Rosemont, Illinois where Sally Remedios received the Patrick Higgins Medal.
The citation on the Medal reads:
For extraordinary perseverance in the development of consensus based standards for the plumbing industry, her enthusiastic leadership in the harmonization of standards between the United States and Canada and her outstanding work towards encouraging the standardization of water efficient devices.